

i would like to see more local radio, and hear more local music, instead of national acts on every radio show.

i would also like to see more coverage of local politics on t.v. and less political hysteria like hannity/o rielly/ matthew, etc. our political 'coverage' is a joke compared to canadian and european countries.